ORDER: (Per Hon'ble Sri Bilal Nazki, The Acting Chief Justice)

In response to the allegation that the detenue was illegally detained, it is submitted by the first respondent that the detenue was only called to the police station as the Director General of Police, Hyderabad, had received a complaint against him that he was threatening witnesses in some case. When he came to the Police Station, an enquiry was made from him regarding the allegations made against him. He denied the allegations, and then he was allowed to leave the Police Station. There was no arrest of the detenue. In support of the same, first respondent filed notarised affidavits of the alleged detenue and his mother before this Court. In these circumstances, no further orders are necessary.
